

LEONARD W. MARTLING

Chief Executive Officer, The Weitz Company

Len Martling was appointed Chief Executive Officer of The Weitz Company June 2010. Len provides leadership to assure long-term viability of the company and to see that it has the abilities and resources to meet its established strategic objectives. That leadership is also instrumental in maintaining The Weitz Company's core values and attaining the objectives of the strategic plan and mission statement. He oversees the Company's planning, coordination and management.

Len has been with the Weitz company for more than twenty-nine years, holding a variety of positions within the operations segment, serving as president of the Nebraska Business Unit, president of the Florida Business Unit as well and Chief Operating Officer.

Len is a graduate of Kent State University with a Bachelor of Arts in Economics. He is on the Board of Managers for The Weitz Company. While working in the Florida office Len was active in Executive Association of West Palm Beach, the Business Development board, Economic council of the Palm Beaches, The Association of General Contractors, Junior Achievement of the Palm Beaches, Inc. and the TAG Committee for the School District of Palm Beach County.