

---

J. SCOTT JOHNSON

---

Regional President Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. – Iowa/Illinois

Scott Johnson, a 32 year veteran of Wells Fargo, currently holds the title of Regional President for Wells Fargo Bank in Iowa and Illinois. Johnson has responsibility for Wells Fargo Community Banks in 45 markets in Iowa and Western Illinois, with a total of 82 retail banks located within those markets. Johnson's leadership role in Central Iowa includes representing the 14,000 Wells Fargo team members in Iowa.

Scott Johnson began his career with Wells Fargo Bank Iowa in 1979 as a regional credit trainee. In 1986, he was promoted to vice president of Mid-Market Banking. Four years later, he became senior vice president and manager of the Commercial Banking Division and in 1993 he was named president of Wells Fargo Bank at 7th and Walnut in Des Moines, Iowa.

He grew up in Morning Sun, Iowa. Johnson graduated from Iowa State University in 1979 with a degree in Industrial Administration - Accounting. He earned a master's of business administration degree in 1990 from Drake University.

He is a graduate of Des Moines Leadership and a graduate of Iowa Leadership. Johnson serves on Drake University's Board of Trustees, Greater Des Moines Partnership's Executive Committee, Board of Principal Charity Classic, presented by Wells Fargo, and the Board of the Iowa Banker's Association.

He and his wife Julia, have two children – Ross, age 22, and Graham, age 19.

---